

1925 PARIS ARTS DECORATIFS EXHIBITION and its Influence on Design
by Mary Alexander

Thursday 03 April 2025
First lecture begins at 10.30am

Price £46.00 to include three lectures, tea/coffee & buffet lunch

The aim of this famous exhibition was to showcase France, and Paris in particular, as the leader in highest quality luxury goods. Was there a single distinctive style or many? And how did the stylistic influences spread so rapidly? Using contemporary descriptions of the stunning pavilions and boutiques, alongside original artefacts, photographs and souvenirs from her own collection, Mary Alexander will recreate for us what it would have been like to be there - but save us the 55 acres foot slog!

The Discovery Day will end at about 3.15pm
